Tom Swan, Lawyer Quarrier, old John Hall and Col. J. W. Davis.

All these persons, according to the writer, "form a constellation of which any State may be proud, and who with hany State may be proud, and who with their many compeers we yet hope to see blending the rays of their genius for the common purpose of illuminating our rising State and making her as she approaches her meridian the cynosure of our national galaxy."

The writer of the foregoing was at Washington lately and saw President.

Hays, "the idol," as he says, of his year's Hays, "the idol," as he says, of his year's worship," "He is a noble specimen of a man, evidently desirous to do right for all; but his eye lacks that open earnestness and sincerity which adoras his campaign portraits, and it emits an uncertain light which is probably kindled by doubtful anxiety as to the construction put upon his motives by the critics of underedoped schemes for the general good."

Mason County Monitor.

The Wirt county Mentor says that the wheat crop of that county nover promised a more abundant yield.

The Huntington debating society has a real stunner of a question for discussion. It is nothing more nor less than this "Whisky, tobacco, or the Democratic party-which worketh the greatest evil tomeiety."

Fifty thousand pounds of tobacco have already been received at the State Tobacco Warchouse, and they are promised one hundred and fifty hogsheads more, which will probably aggregate three hundred thousand pounds.—Huntington Commercial is just across the Hudson from Jersey as Wheeling is just across the Ohio from the great Buckeye State. The inference is therefore obvious. The Wool Market. [N. Y. Eulletin of Saturday.]

The market in its general features presents much the same points before noted. The downward decline of values isless decided in character, and indeed in some cases may be considered as having re ceived a slight check, and the feeling is ceived a slight check, and the feeling is fairly steady. The disposition of holders, however, does not lead them to look for any decided reaction, or to attempt checking the movement of supplies when an opportunity occurs, as manufacturers evidently are too closely committed to a cautious policy to be induced to anticipate their wants, except upon the most substantial indications, and these cannot be shown at present either through the position of wool or its product. The accumulations of fine are reduced and fairly under control, and buyers dealring extra selections experience some difficulty in accommodating themselves, and under these circumstances occasional reports of better rates are made, but the general position is not influenced thereby, in view of the new clips close at hand. Most coarse carpet wools continue steady, and in some cases are quite firm, in view of a limited sunnels of tomestic and a bein view of the new clips close at hand. Most coarse carpet wools continue atealy, and in some cases are quite firm, in view of a limited supply of domestic and a belief that the foreign grades will be checked in their movement to this country by the war. Foreign clothing wools remain quiet and mominally unchanged, but not over, firm, as the advices from abroad afford nothing encouraging. During the week there has been a pretty good business doing in California spring clip, but the sales mostly to dealers, only odd lots being wanted by manufacturers. The transactions include 20,000 XX Ohio, 40c; 18,600 lbs Michigan fleeces, 36c; 6,000 lbs Wisconsin, 35c; 3,000 lbs Xd o, 36c; 15,060 lbs Michigan fleeces, 36c; 6,000 lbs Wisconsin, 35c; 3,000 lbs No. 1 medium, 36c; 2,000 lbs Cong. 3,315c; 1,000 lbs delaine, 2,500 lbs State combing and delaine, 2,500 lbs washed No. 1 Ohio, 30 hags extra pulled, 40 bags super do, 10 bags lambs do, on private terms; 20 bags super, 32c; 3,500 lbs Oregon, 32c; 10,000 lbs Western Texas, 10322c.

The New York Journal of Commerce, of The New York Journal of Commerce,

Saturday, speaks thus about the market: The market has a little better temper.

The sales abroad showed only a slight decline, much lighter than had been expected, and the reports from other markets have been in a measure stimulating, more especially from California. The demand here is also a little more general, with California and Texas grades most freely dealt in, and one or two full lines Packed in pound papers, handsome label, warnot the former taken, and atrong prices and the markets and by many to be the very best in the markets.

General News.—The Wetzel county
Viadicator comes out decidedly for Clarksburg as the Capital.

The Monroe county, W. Va., Register (away down in the Third District) greets the Wheeling Register editor, now that he has come out for Charleston, as "a man and a brother."

The same writer has been attending Federal Court at Charleston, and speaks thus of various persons he met:

"The diplomatic velvety Mathews, the bloff good-natured Jackson, the brilliant and petted Goff, the sturdy, plodding, Machiavellian Ferguson, the motherly and experienced Price, the flashing, dashing Quarrier, the old Roman Swann, the venerable Cato Hall, with the gallant, impulsive, yet devoted Davis."

Literally translated, this paragraph simply means that the writer met with
Gov. Mathews, Judge Jackson, Gen,
Goff, Judge Ferguson, ex-Senator Price,
Tom Swan, Lawyer Quarrier, old John
